मालवीय मिशन वाराणसी

काशी हिन्दू विश्वविद्यालय एवं वाराणसी नगर इकाइयों की संयुक्त बैठक 20 सितम्बर २०१५ को मालवीय भवन में हुई। बैठक में राष्ट्रीय उपाध्यक्ष श्री प्रभु नारायण श्रीवास्तव उपस्थित थे। वाराणसी नगर इकाई अपनी बैठकें नियमित रूप से करेगी। श्री राजकुमार अग्रवाल एवं श्री हर्ष सिंह ने इसकी जिम्मेवारी ली। विश्वविद्यालय इकाई की बैठकों की जिम्मेवारी डा. उपेन्द्र त्रिपाठी एवं श्री विजयनाथ पाण्डेय ने स्वीकार की। प्रो. देवेश गुप्ता उन्हें अपना पूरा सहयोग प्रदान करेंगे। दोनों इकाइयों की कार्यकारिणी समितियां भविष्य के कार्यक्रम की रूप-रेखा तय करेंगी। दोनों इकाइयों के सामने जो भी समस्या आयेगी, प्रो. जे. पी. लाल उनके समाधान हेतु उनका सहयोग करेंगे।

विधि न्याय और श्रीमदभगवद गीता

विधि महाविद्यालय में 21 सितम्बर 2015 को विधि, न्याय और श्रीमदभगवद गीता विषय पर श्री प्रभु नारायण श्रीवास्तव का व्याख्यान हुआ। उन्होंने कहा कि सामाजिक न्याय, सदभाव एवं व्यक्ति स्वातंत्र्य के त्रिकोण में संतुलन स्थापन एक साधना है। वास्तव में विधि स्थापना ईश्वर का ही कार्य है। यह साधना के द्वारा ही प्राप्त की जा सकती है। मालवीय जी एक अधिवक्ता थे। उन्होंने अपने विधिक कार्य एवं उसके बाद भी इसकी अनवरत साधना की। ईश्वर के साथ जुड़ने के कारण सामान्यतः इन्द्रियों की तृप्ति के लिए किया गया कार्य मनुष्य को धर्म के अनुकूल बनाये रखता है।

Lecture on “Value-oriented Education and Character Building” by Shri J.S.Rajput

Mahamana Malaviya Mission, Varanasi organised a Lecture by Dr J.S.Rajput (former Director, NCERT) on “Value-oriented Education and Character Building” at the Faculty of Sanskrit Vidya Dharm Vigyan, BHU. The lecture was a part of the BHU Centenary Celebrations. Prof G.C.Tripathi, Vice Chancellor, presided over the function.

Dr Uday Pratap Shahi extended a warm welcome to the distinguished guests. Prof J.P. Lal gave a brief account of the activities of Malaviya Mission. Dr Rajput lauded Mahamana’s efforts in setting up such a large residential University with the objective of imparting moral and ethical values along with scientific and technical education. Indian culture and values are important. He gave the example of Japan which has developed on account of value-oriented teaching and emphasis on quality. BHU which is the “capital of knowledge” must assess what should be quality of education. He noted that behind the growth of Silicon Valley was the great contribution of Stanford University. Only with a proper work culture and national spirit can the nation progress. Prof Tripathi opined that the main objective of education is the integrated development of the physical, mental and spiritual aspects of the students’ personality. Kulgeet was presented by Dr Mamta Mehra, Malvika Tripathi and Sangeeta Shukla.

Former director of NCERT Jag Mohan Rajput delivered a special lecture on ‘value-oriented education and character building’ at Faculty of Sanskrit Vidya Dharm Vigyan (SVDV) on Banaras Hindu University (BHU) here on Wednesday. The lecture was organised under the auspices of BHU Unit of Mahamana Malviya Mission as a part of BHU’s Centenary Year Celebrations. The function was presided over by the Vice-Chancellor Prof Girish Chandra Tripathi.

Addressing the function, Prof Rajput said that in the entire world, economic, social and ethical problems existed but they might be of different nature. He said that the problems are not solved through resources but through views. He said that today most of the universities, colleges and institutes said that they had lack of proper resources but when Mahamana Malviyaji set up the university had lacked all the resources. He first sought land for the university from the King of Banaras which he got and then he started construction of the university. He said that scholars, scientists and others played important role in setting up an industry. Citing the examples of BHU and Japan, he said that the quality of any nation depended on its value-oriented teachings and quality of teachers. He stressed the need for publication of a research book on the education system in the country during the last 100 years. He also emphasised on giving knowledge of Indian education system and Indian culture as well as values of life to the students.

Presiding over the function, Prof GC Tripathi said that a nation has become strong with the quality of its people and the main objectives of the education are to develop the physical and mental personality of the people. He said that culture of any nation is important for values. In the beginning, Anaymani Tripathi, Rahul Mishra and Pradeep Dixit recited Manglacharan and then Kulgeet was presented by Dr Mamta Mehra, Malvika Tripathi and Sangeeta Shukla.

The guests were welcomed by president of BHU Unit of Mission Dr Uday Pratap Shahi. The dean of the faculty Prof G Ajney Shastri welcomed the chief guest, while the subject was introduced by Prof Devbrat Choubey. Prof JP Lal highlighted the activities of the Mission which was set up on April 9, 1978.
